THE KEVIN CAIN 5K MAKE MY DAY

Helping People Fight Cancer

5K RUN & 1 Mile WALK

Annunciation B.V.M. • 401 Brookline Blvd. • Havertown, PA 19083

Sunday, April 2nd, 2017 marks the 12th annual Kevin Cain "Make My Day" 5K Run and 1 Mile walk. This family-friendly race through the streets of Havertown, has become one of the most popular 5K races in Delaware County.

The Kevin Cain Memorial Foundation (KCMF) is a 501(c) (3) organization whose mission is to provide assistance to families coping with the financial burden of fighting cancer. The KCMF was founded in 2006 in memory of Kevin Cain, who lost his courageous battle with cancer in June 2005. Kevin was someone who made a difference in the lives of others by coaching youth sports and volunteering his time for worthy causes. Kevin's legacy of helping others continues through the work of the Kevin Cain Memorial Foundation.

A cancer diagnosis often means missed days from work, frequent doctor visits, insurance co-pays, and expensive medications. Despite seemingly adequate health insurance coverage, the financial toll of having cancer can be devastating to a family.

Since its inception, the Kevin Cain Memorial Foundation has helped over a thousand families in and around our community, offering compassion, respect, and ultimately...HOPE.

We hope you will be one of the many runners, walkers or spectators who take part in this year's event and thereby take part in our mission to help people in their fight against cancer.
